

Treasures in Heaven

Words & Music by Larry Holder

1. Lay up trea - sures in heav - en — that ne - ver go a - way. You can't lose them or break them, — They're al - ways there to stay. Far more pre - cious than sil - ver, — and e - ven more than gold, are the trea - sures in heav - en — one day you will be - hold! 2. There are treasures here on earth, but they real - ly will not last. You lose them or break them; — you leave them in the past. What's stored down here gets rust - y, — or thieves break in and steal. What

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It begins in 4/4 time and changes to 2/4 time at the end of the third staff. Chord symbols (C, F, Dm, G7, C7) are placed above the staff to indicate harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the staff, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The score includes a repeat sign with a first ending bracket and a second ending bracket. The lyrics are: 1. Lay up trea - sures in heav - en — that ne - ver go a - way. You can't lose them or break them, — They're al - ways there to stay. Far more pre - cious than sil - ver, — and e - ven more than gold, are the trea - sures in heav - en — one day you will be - hold! 2. There are treasures here on earth, but they real - ly will not last. You lose them or break them; — you leave them in the past. What's stored down here gets rust - y, — or thieves break in and steal. What seems so great to - day will one day lose all its ap-peal. So lay up hold! A god - ly life is trea-sure— that's sure to please the Lord, And so is tel - ling o - thers of the Good News of God's Word. The gift of love to o - thers— that you may share a - broad Be - comes a liv-ing trea-sure that is pleas-ing to our God! So lay up hold! The trea - sures in heav - en— one day you will be - hold!

Treasures in Heaven (page 2)